

Why is parish hospitality so important? Statistically, hospitality is a top determinant for a Catholic's likelihood to:

- Recommend the parish to a friend;
- Say the parish helps them grow spiritually;
- Indicate they are practicing vs. Catholic in name only.*

This workshop will explore how hospitality is connected to the spirituality of stewardship and parish revitalization. It will also give you practical examples of how your parish community can become more hospitable right now.

This workshop is open to all involved in parish ministry. It may be of particular interest to ministers of hospitality, greeters, ushers, parish staff, and members of the parish pastoral council.
