Pilot Parish "Family Snapshots"

St. Isaac Jogues, Pickering: Volunteers are very active meeting with other parishioners. Inspired by Father Dobson's success, they are driven to build upon the nearly fifty per cent of goal that Father has raised. Notably, St. Isaac Jogues received its largest gift of the campaign thus far, leading to an impressive average gift of over $17,000.

St. Ann's, Penetanguishene: Father John Asadoorian welcomed volunteers to serve on the Campaign Executive Committee this week. They are ready and eager to build upon the twenty-five per cent of the campaign goal that Father has raised by himself.

Guardian Angels, Orillia: Guardian Angels Parish has broken its goal of $505,000, with a total of $523,980 now pledged. They have raised enough money to expand their parking lot, and are eager to continue their success by raising another $200,000 for much needed projects within the parish. Congratulations to Father Andrew Cyruk and Guardian Angels Parish!

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Toronto: The parish has broken its goal of $136,000 with a total raised of $146,260. Father Chin is looking forward to raising a total of $500,000. He plans to build a Chinese-style canopy over the entrance of the parish hall to represent the ever growing Catholic Chinese community of Toronto.

St. Mary, Brampton: As St. Mary's begins the next phase of its campaign, the response from parishioners has been tremendous. The Campaign Executive Committee thanks those who have participated so far as the parish moves into the Advance Phase with over 60% of its goal raised!

St. Andrew Kim, North York: St. Andrew Kim parish received its 140th gift this last week, with 2 months still left in the campaign. Fr. Choi extends his thanks to the parishioners of St. Andrew Kim for their generosity and dedication. It is only with such marvelous support that this success is possible!

St. Joseph, Mississauga: Fr. Marc-Andre Campbell received 9 additional gifts to the campaign this week alone. The impressive week saw the campaign increase from 16 to 25 gifts. Fr. Marc was also pleased to welcome 10 Advance Gift Committee members who returned from their orientation the week prior to help visit with fellow parishioners.
