This Just In

- ❖ In response to feedback from many volunteers and donors, we are pleased to advise that cheques to the campaign may now be made payable to "Family of Faith Campaign."

Campaign Tips

- ❖ Visiting a prospective donor? Schedule the date and time for your follow-up meeting at the same time.
- ❖ Know the "Case." Prospective donors often want details. Be confident in your knowledge of the parish case and the full archdiocesan case.
- ❖ Know the Family of Faith prayer. Start and close your meetings with the campaign prayer.

- ❖ Thursday, May 15, 2014: Official public launch of Family of Faith campaign. More details to come about this midday event.

Pilot Parish “Family Snapshots”

St. Joseph, Mississauga: The volunteers at St. Joseph were hard at work this past week, bringing in three additional gifts to the Family of Faith campaign. Fr. Marc-Andre Campbell has been very pleased to see so many parish volunteers continuing to make visits with fellow parishioners.

Precious Blood, Scarborough: Precious Blood received an additional 37 gifts this week, doubling the number of gifts previously received during the campaign. With the additional funds over goal, Precious Blood will be able to fully address its local case components and possibly other needs of the parish.

St. Ann’s, Penetanguishene: Father Asadoorian will welcome parishioners to the Advance Gift Orientation this upcoming week. Father and his volunteers are looking forward to sharing their enthusiasm about the campaign with other parishioners.

St. Luke’s, Thornhill: Father Bill Burns and volunteers are off to a great start in the Advance Phase. In one week, they raised $73,000, bringing them to a total of $501,000—68% of their $735,000 archdiocesan goal.

Guardian Angels, Orillia: The Campaign Executive Committee and Advance Phase Committee are working with Father Andrew Cyruk to make visits with fellow parishioners. Six of the seven gifts received last week were received by volunteers for a total of $40,000.

St. Mary, Brampton: The campaign is progressing rapidly at St. Mary’s in Brampton. Parishioners have responded to Fr. Liborio’s presentations with great enthusiasm and support!

Merciful Redeemer, Mississauga Fr. Vid Vlasic was pleased to receive over $100,000 in pledges over the past week, bringing them to just shy of 60% of their archdiocesan goal. The parish is committing most of its share to help support its neighbouring parish, St. Josephine Bakhita.
