

Campaign Progress

Overall, the campaign has raised gifts and pledges totalling $110.25 million. Wave 3 parishes had another excellent week, raising more than $1.3 million for a new total of $14.5 million. Wave 3 parishes have now raised 62% of their collective goal! This is great news and provides much encouragement to other campaigns in the wave. Parishes with Combined Campaigns have now achieved 108% of their collective goal.

Wave 4 Parish Information

All parishes participating in Wave 4 of the Family of Faith campaign will be contacted by Friday, August 21st by a Family of Faith campaign office representative. As noted at our Orientation Sessions, the first meeting will be with the pastor and the Parish Campaign Director.

Several parishes still have outstanding material that must be submitted to complete their parish case statement brochures. If you have questions about the status of your case statement, contact John Ecker, Director of Campaign Communications at 416.934.3400 x 805 or jecker@archtoronto.org.

Wave 3 Campaign Updates

St. Monica's Parish, Toronto: Through the efforts of their Commitment Weekend and follow up, Fr. Damian is pleased to announce that they raised over $200,000, catapulting them over goal. Congratulations on a job well done!

St. Croix Parish, Lafontaine: Fr. Desroches and the Campaign Executive Committee (CEC) have successfully raised $171,770, well over the $150,000 parish goal. $83,070 was raised through Commitment Weekends at St. Florence Chapel and Ste. Croix. Félicitations!

St. Patrick's Parish, Stayner: Father Llamas and the CEC hosted a successful Special Phase orientation and recruited 13 volunteers to call fellow parishioners during the phone-a-thon. They will be sharing information about the campaign, answering questions and asking parishioners to join the efforts in raising their $250,000 goal. With $185,870 already committed, they are 74% there!

St. Margaret's Parish, Midland: The Campaign Executive Committee and Fr. McLenaghan have been hard at work visiting with families to share news on the Family of Faith campaign. Their efforts have paid off with $398,100 raised towards their $370,000 goal and their Commitment Weekend happening this weekend. Great job Father and team!

St. Elizabeth Seton Parish, Newmarket: Father Roberts and volunteers are thrilled with receiving $113,755 in pledges this week. Currently at 60% of their goal, everyone has recognized the importance of promoting the campaign through word of mouth and tabling after masses.

St. Bernadette's Parish, Ajax: A strong effort in promoting the campaign has led the parish to receive $70,200 in pledges this week. Father Wallace and volunteers are very pleased with the success, and recognize the importance of raising campaign awareness and encouraging parishioners to make decisions by Commitment Weekend.

St. Teresa, Etobicoke: Fr. Gabriel, Fr. Sobierajski and the volunteers continue to meet with parishioners and close gift decisions. The parish is almost half way to its goal!

At Immaculate Conception Parish in Woodbridge, Father James Chitteth is holding many parish orientation meetings to share information about the Family of Faith campaign.

St. Timothy, Toronto: Fr. Vandenakker and the volunteers are looking forward to a successful conclusion of the campaign after the Commitment Weekend on August 15 & 16. The parish has been very generous and the team is excited to have a strong finish.
