

Campaign Progress

Congratulations to our Wave 3 parishes. They have now reached 100% of their collective goal. 35 parishes in the wave have met or exceeded their goals. As the remaining Wave 3 campaigns near completion, we wish all pastors and their parish teams much success.

Wave 2 parishes raised just over $40 million or 151% of their collective goals. Wave 1 parishes raised $15.250 million/153%. Pilot Phase parishes raised $12.135 million/166%. Overall, the campaign has raised $119.4 million.

We have 44 parishes participating in Wave 4 of the campaign. Already, several parishes receiving significant gifts. The October 13th edition of Family Update will be begin to share results in those parishes.

St. John the Baptist, Toronto is one of our Wave 4 parishes. Recently, Fr. Florez held information sessions to introduce this Hispanic parish community to the Family of Faith campaign. 300 parishioners attended two sessions. Homemade Colombian empanadas, sweets and refreshments were offered during the event.

Work is now underway to conduct the Special Phase phone-a-thon in preparation for the parish's Commitment Weekend in early October. Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, Toronto: Cardinal Collins recently spoke about the Archdiocese of Toronto's Pastoral Plan and the Family of Faith campaign at parish Masses. Fr. Coyle has recruited more than 15 volunteers to assist him in reaching out to families in the Major and Advance Phases. All the best to Fr. Coyle and the whole parish as it works toward a successful campaign.

St. Joseph the Worker Parish, Thornhill: Parish staff and the CEC have been working overtime collecting payment information for all the parishioners who pledged their support during the parish's recent Commitment Weekend. Almost $300,000 in pledges has recently been collected, bringing the parish's total raised to almost $1 million or 160% of the parish's campaign goal. Congratulations to all!
