

Campaign Progress

Collectively, the 42 Wave 4 parishes conducting standard campaigns had an excellent week, raising more than $1 million, for a total of $5.4 million or 30% of the wave's $17.9 million goal.

Most Wave 3 parishes have completed the active phase of their campaigns. As of this week, they have collectively raised $29.2 million or 124% of their goal. This is the last week that we'll be posting parish-by-parish results for Wave 3 parishes in Family Update. Full details can always be found on our webpage at ourFamilyofFaith.ca

Overall, the campaign has raised gifts and pledges of $132.6 million.

An Important Reminder about Non-cash Year-end Gifts

In addition to cash gifts, the Family of Faith campaign accepts gifts of securities, insurance, gifts-in-kind, and annuities. Every prospective donor to the campaign has been provided with a copy of "Ways of Giving" brochure which provides a brief overview about the various options.

Pastors and volunteers who have been approached by prospective donors wishing to explore these non-cash gift options are encouraged to alert their Parish Campaign Director as soon as possible. The director will help ensure that specially trained archdiocesan staff work closely with the donor and/or their financial services representative.

Gifts of Securities:

Many donors choose to make their securities gifts near the end of the calendar year as it coincides with the tax year. To ensure that securities donors benefit from a 2015 charitable tax receipt, all necessary paperwork to complete the gift in 2015 must be received no later than 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 24, 2015.

Other Non-Cash Gifts:

Gifts of insurance, gifts in-kind and annuities also require advance planning to complete the donation process.

For advice and support regarding gifts of securities, insurance, gifts-in-kind, and annuities gifts, please contact Quentin Schesnuik, Manager of Planned Giving and Personal Gifts at 416.934.3400 x561 or development@archtoronto.org

Wave 4 Campaign Updates

St. Leo the Great Parish, Brooklyn: Congratulations to Fr. Forget and his committee who have worked so hard to meet with many of the major and advance gift parishioners. Because of their efforts and the generosity of parishioners, the parish has now raised almost 60% or $231,580 of its campaign goal. Work is underway to prepare for the next information meeting, scheduled for November 19th. Almost 300 parishioners have been invited.

St. John's Parish, Toronto: The parish is off to a great start following a series of orientations sessions done by the indefatigable team of Fr. Newton and his CEC members. The parish is now at $108,800 or 27% of goal. The plan is to finish all visits and calls to the major and advance phase parishioners within next week, prior to the campaign's public launch.

Fr. Newton and his CEC members at St. John's Parish, Toronto.

St. Sebastian's Parish, Toronto: The parish had a great start to its campaign, thanks to a dedicated group of volunteers who are organizing meetings and following up with parishioners.

St. John the Evangelist Parish, Weston: Father Maderak's CEC volunteers after a productive operational meeting.

Immaculate Conception Parish, Port Perry: 190 families have been invited to an information meeting on November 19th to learn more about the Family of Faith campaign. The parish has already raised almost 50% or $139,500 of its campaign goal. This strong outcome is a result of the generosity of parishioners and the hard work and leadership of Fr. Testa and the Campaign Executive Committee (CEC). Well done!

St. Clare's Parish, Toronto: The parish's Family of Faith pasta night was well-attended with 220 parishioners turning out to hear about the campaign and of course, to enjoy the delicious food. Everyone received their Family of Faith campaign packets and Fr. De Pinto is looking forward to receiving more pledges soon. The event also successfully enlisted 8 more volunteers to help out in the campaign.

At Lady of Good Counsel Parish, Toronto, Father Guiseppi has gathered an amazing group of volunteers for the Campaign Executive Committee. Major and advance phases are in full swing.

St. Joseph's Parish, Scarborough: After a successful orientation meeting, the committee chairs have gone above and beyond with organizing volunteers, preparing, editing and re-editing lists and making many home visits. Thank you to the leadership of Lucy and Bryan.

St. Edward the Confessor Parish, North York: Fr. O'Dea recently introduced the campaign to the entire congregation and families were enthused to hear about the parish's campaign. As support continues to grow more families came forth with their commitment to raise another $93,700 this past week!

St. Marguerite D'Youville Parish, Brampton: Recently, Fr. Mignella hosted a very successful orientation session and introduced the campaign to many parishioners. People were delighted to hear about the parish's amazing initiative; Father has received $62,000 in pledged support this week!

Wave 3 Campaign Updates

St. Joan of Arc Parish, Toronto: St. Joan of Arc parish has successfully completed their campaign. The parish is at 102% of their goal. Congratulations to Father Callahan and a great group of volunteers.

Your support is working

"I want to express my thanks to all of the donors supporting our Family of Faith campaign. Your commitment is an inspiration," said Cardinal Thomas Collins. "The response from the parishioners has been very generous."

The Family of Faith campaign plan includes many important initiatives in support of the Archdiocese of Toronto's Pastoral Plan. Cardinal Collins said, "It's important that we implement those priorities as the funding from the campaign becomes available and put our parishioners' contributions to work as soon as possible."

Jim Milway is the Chancellor of Temporal Affairs at the Archdiocese of Toronto. Part of his job includes ensuring funds from the Family of Faith campaign are allocated in keeping with the campaign plan. The campaign was first conducted in ten Pilot Phase parishes followed by four additional waves of parishes. The chart on p. 2 shows how the Pilot Phase and the first two waves performed. "Most parishes that have completed their campaigns exceeded their goals. As a result, parishes are receiving more funds than anticipated. That is because once a parish campaign reaches its goal, 75 per cent of funds above the goal are allocated for parish priorities," said Mr. Milway.

"It's terrific news," said Mr. Milway. "The Pilot Phase and those in the first two waves were estimated to collectively receive $11 million. They will now receive almost three times that amount because they have been so successful." This success means that instead of 25 per cent, these parishes will receive 43 per cent or $29.2 million.

Project Connect launches first parish websites

Currently, in a society that spends countless hours online, 25% of parishes in the Archdiocese of Toronto do not have a website. Project Connect, funded by the Family of Faith campaign, is the archdiocese's response to this reality. Project Connect consists of a new main archdiocesan website (www.archtoronto.org) connected to individual parish websites.

The main archdiocesan site went live in February, 2015. There are 20 pilot parishes in production and at least one new parish site has been launched every week since September. Approximately 100 sites are expected to be up and running in the next six months.

The Family of Faith campaign has allocated $1.5 million to Project Connect. $246,000 has been used to purchase the hardware and content management system, and $100,000 will be spent annually over 10 years for maintenance and support.

The new system has many important features and functions.

Shift workers faced with a Sunday workday will be able to find a Saturday evening Mass at a nearby parish. Parents looking to sign up their son or daughter for sacrament preparation or a local youth group will be able to find a group by looking online. With the new system, parish staff can easily update content themselves, as no coding is required to update the sites. If they choose not to update their parish content, their websites will still stay fresh and relevant, since the archdiocese will update defined content on each parish site (such as archdiocesan-wide events).

Thanks to your support for the Family of Faith campaign, Catholics across the archdiocese are becoming more connected every day.
