To all clergy and staff of the Archdiocese of Toronto,

Update regarding capacity restrictions for weddings and funerals

The provincial government has amended its restrictions relating to capacity for weddings and funerals. Places of worship are now permitted to have 30% capacity for these gatherings as of this time.

A reminder that physical distancing must still be maintained, as with all of our church celebrations.

Thank you for all that you continue to do.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

† Thomas Card. Collins
