- ⇒ Have you ever been invited to a life-cycle event that you were unfamiliar with?
- ⇒ Did you wonder about the service and its significance?
- ⇒ Did you wonder what was the correct thing to say or do?
- ⇒ Did you wonder what you should avoid doing, saying, wearing?
- ⇒ Did you want to know how long a service might be?
- ⇒ If you should bring a gift and if so, what would be appropriate?

We will answer these and any other questions that you might have as we share rituals and ceremonies from birth to death. “How to Be a Perfect Stranger,” is inspired by the award winning book of the same name, edited by Stuart M. Matlins & Arthur J. Magida
